

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

NATIONAL HOME FOR DISABLED VOLUNTEER SOLDIERS,

(NORTHWESTERN BRANCH)

Near MILWAUKEE, Wisconsin.

National Soldiers' Home Printing Office.

NEAR MILWAUKEE, WISCONSIN.

1875.

HISTORICAL SKETCH.

A well selected and miscellaneous collection of books and other literature suited to the general reader, has ever been considered by the management of the Home to be an almost indispensable requisite to proper government and control; and therefore early in the history of the Institution, efforts were made to secure voluntary contributions from interested persons, and more recently an annual expenditure has been made from the contingent fund to further the project, which has at length assumed the character and proportions of a Library. It is apparent, from the inscriptions upon many of the volumes which have evidently been longest in use, that the effort to obtain voluntary contributions was, in some degree, responded to by benevolent sympathizers. On the fly-leaves of several books is written: "Eight Wisconsin Battery Library Association;" on a few, "Presented by citizens of Columbus, Wis.;" on others, "Presented by First Unitarian Church Society, Boston, through Rev. Mr. GANNET;" and some two or three hundred volumes contain a slip on which is printed: "The L. B. Schwabe Library, named by the Honorable Board of Managers, July 2, 1869—Major-Gen. B. F. Butler, President; Hon. Lewis B. Gunckel, Secretary." A few months later, as appears from the minutes of the Board, its action naming the Library was rescinded.

Additions have been made, from time to time, as the funds devoted to this object would allow; a large and valuable collection of Executive and Congressional Documents have been obtained from Washington through Hon. Alexander Mitchell, and other members of Congress; and complete sets, so far as possible, of Reports of the Adjutant-Generals of the several loyal States, issued during the Rebellion, have recently been obtained. During the past year, nearly eleven hundred dollars were expended for books by the Commandant of the Home, General EDWARD W. HINCKS, adding many valuable standard and popular works. The Library was then classified and a new catalogue made.

The new books were purchased of Harper Brothers, and D. Appleton & Company, New York; and the gentlemen last named have manifested their interest in the Library by donating to it the new edition of the American Cyclopaedia.
